

The RF spectrum is a precious public resource; especially the high frequency portion, due to it's long distance propagation characteristics. Interference caused by BPL, or broadband internet over powerline technology poses a real danger to HF communication. Please see to it that we as citizens of Planet Earth do not lose this precious resource. 73 from amateur radio station N7JST